ABOUT US

Perfect AV is an Audio Visual company based in Ballymena with Offices In Belfast and Portrush.

We are a specialist installer of professional Audio Visual Equipment and automation systems.

Differentiating your developments can be a challenge; but when well executed, it can be the difference between making a sale and not. Perfect AV provides an affordable home-control solution that lets you build greener homes and give buyers an easy-to-use, high-tech solution - both things that are very important in today's market.

We can provide a full design and installation service. We have excellent engineers and programmers who provide you with a solution that will meet your requirements. Our project managers will ensure your project has a controlled delivery from start to finish, on time and within budget.

Our staff communicates well with architects, engineers, interior designers and contractors, to ensure that the audio visual element dovetails with the rest of the works in a new build or refurbishment project.

We can also retro-fit an audio visual system into an existing or listed building. We can also provide specialist electricians, joiners, plasterers and builders for projects that require that extra special care and detail.

We can also provide all the technology for your business to thrive In an ever competitive market and it won't cost the earth. We offer a variety of services from CCTV & Security Services to Computing and Networking. We can also offer you the high level of support to ensure everything runs smoothly from day one.

With PERFECT AV, you can simplify your life by bringing all of the technology in your home together into one complete, elegant solution.

TOTAL CONTROL

We give you simple, practical control of your music, movies, lights, temperature and security system from anywhere in your home or anywhere in the world.

Our wired and wireless, easy-to-use products make the home the favourite place to be by bringing a new level of effortless entertainment, peace of mind, and comfort and convenience to your clientele.

Affordable - We bring you the benefits of a practical, reliable home-automation system at a price that fits your budget. Our scalable design also means that it's not an all-or-nothing solution - you can start with a basic system and your client can then upgrade over time with solutions that fit their needs and budget.

Developers throughout the country are responding to increased expectations from home buyers by making provision for technology services in new homes. The increasing complexity of incoming telephone, broadband and TV service options is adding to the challenges faced by developers.
